

The ₹120

Ideal Home

The Ideal Home and Garden, August 2018 Vol 12 Issue 10

and Garden

City Scanner
Top Decor
Stores for Styling

Best-Buy
Home Appliances

GREAT DESIGNS FROM
DESIGN DESTINATIONS

FROM A BYGONE ERA

Dating from 1901, this large Edwardian property is rooted in the arts and crafts movement

IMPRESSIONS: BENOY SEBASTIAN

IMAGES: JAKE FITZJONES PHOTOGRAPHY

OWNER'S PRIDE

The Family: Private

Location: Godalming, Surrey, UK

Interior designer: Maurizio Pellizzoni (Maurizio Pellizzoni Ltd)

ENTRANCE

The grand entrance similar to that of a manor with a huge door marks sophisticated and luxurious lifestyle.

THE LIVING

The relaxed and informal living space has timeless nautical style that translates into a contemporary, English countryside setting. It is a scheme inspired by the signature Hampton's style, an effortless mix of smart tailoring, cool blue and neutral tones and natural materials.

House Of The Month

T

his large Edwardian property has space used to the maximum effect. Designer Maurizio Pellizzoni extended the original building to add a new double-height formal room, orangery, three extra bathrooms and walk-in wardrobe. The owners were keen to keep intact existing pieces of furniture from various family trips abroad into the new design. These pieces were distributed amongst the rooms in the house, and used as the inspiration behind each room's individual colour scheme and feel, creating an eclectic, yet personal overall design aesthetic. Maurizio completely redesigned the kitchen with help from a local kitchen maker, sourcing the perfect finishing touches like the custom-made Carrara worktop for the kitchen. Particular attention was paid to final details throughout the home in order to achieve a high level of elegance and sophistication in the design - such as the beautifully crafted door handles by Charles Edwards. Ralph Lauren, de Le Cuona and Andrew Martin furniture and fabrics are also used throughout to create an air of luxurious refinement, while complementing the owners existing pieces. The home has an upscale American look alongside the owner's many personal antiques and objects d'art. All the artworks are reframed for consistency and the furniture, including the kitchen, the balustrade in the hallway and all the sofas, are custom-made by Maurizio Pellizzoni. Each bedroom is themed around an existing antique piece. The home has the coastal elegance feel of New England styling with a quintessentially British feel creating the perfect backdrop for a relaxed living and entertaining space for the owners. The design serves to conjure up memories of summer days spent by the beach, while retaining an element of timeless English tradition and charm.

House Of The Month

A smart palette of navy blue and white, softened with wicker furniture, patterned textiles and greenery is charm personified.

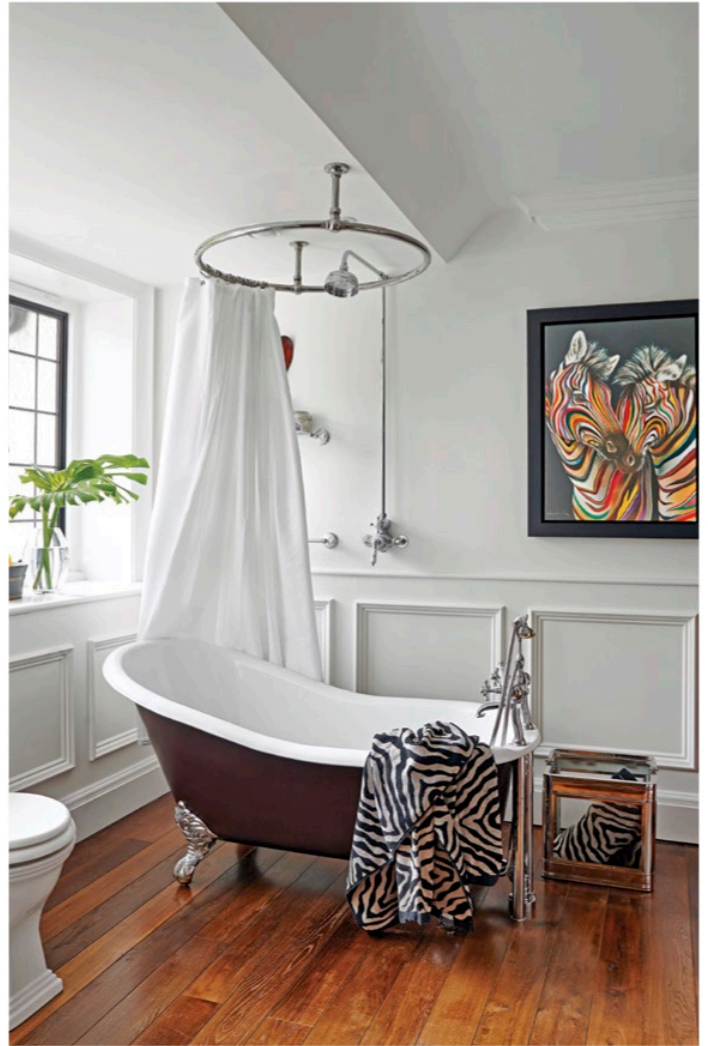

The nautical stripes of the cushions and the statement hamptons rug depicts mark of perfection.

THE BEDROOM

The large four poster bed resembles elegance to the tee. The draped curtains on all four sides is what makes up for the relaxing mood.

THE BATH

The wooden floor and the hanging piece of art defines the white coloured bathroom. The tub, fit for a queen is simply imposing.

WORK ZONE

The white coloured wall is what makes this study cum work room look attractive. Shaped like a small cubicle, it glorify's beauty.